842 To Recieve Diplomas At June 27th Graduation

On Thursday morning, June 27, 842 New Utrecht Seniors will receive their diplomas. The graduation exercises will take place at the Loew's Kings Theater on Flatbush Avenue. The Honorable Luigi Marano, Assemblyman, will be the guest speaker.

The three student speakers will be Henry Adam, Adele Rosenzweig, and Janice Schwartz. Each will discuss one aspect of the central theme, which is: "Man's Ability To Communicate Is Not Commensurate With His Need."

A Bible selection will be read by Diana Arezzo. Richard Logosso will read, on behalf of the class, the Pledge by Graduates. Senior Class President Anthony Parente will present the class gift to the school. Angela Lupo will present the gift from the Co-op classes. The diplomas will be accepted for the graduates by Elias Brettler and Dorene Goldberg, the Boy and Girl Leaders of Arista.

The entertainment will be provided by the Senior Band, under the direction of Mr. Samuel Charry. The band will play two selections: "March From Sixth Symphony" by Tschaikowsky, and "Spirit of Pageantry" by Fletcher.

Mayor's Citation Awarded To 14 Jan. and June Grads

This year, 14 New Utrecht seniors were honored by Mayor Robert F. Wagner during a televised ceremony at City Hall on May 21. The students received the Mayor's Committee Citations for Outstanding Achievement. The program is set up to honor and aid New York City secondary school students who have excelled scholastically in their four years in high school.

The committee also provides scholarships to eligible students who are planning to attend one of the 22 private institutions for higher education in New York City. Besides receiving a citation award, Dorene Goldberg also received an $1,100 scholarship to Barnard College.

Three of the students who received the awards were from the January graduating class. They are Stephanie Gordon, Marvin Ringer and Sidney Rosen, who are now attending Brooklyn College. The other eleven, who will graduate in June, are, in alphabetical order:

Henry Adam—Henry will attend Hamilton. He has served as Treasurer of Arista and is on the Math Team.

Diana Arezzo—Diana will attend Brooklyn College. She is a member of Arista, the Modern Dance Club and has served as Art Advisor to Comet.

Elias Brettler—Eli will attend Haverford College. He has served as Boy Leader and Treasurer of Arista and as a member of the Math and Swimming Teams.

Joseph Feldhamer—Joe will attend Brooklyn College. He is a member of Arista and the Math Team.

Gordon Genet—Gordon will study at Rochester College. He is a member of Arista and the Math Team.

Michael Goldfarb—Mike will attend Brooklyn College. He is a member of Arista and the Bio Squad.

Dorene Goldberg—Dorene will study at Barnard. She has served as Girl Leader of Arista, Elections Commissioner and Social Commissioner of the G.O.

Philip Melito—Phil will attend Brooklyn College. He has served on Stage Crew and as an Associate Justice of Student Court.

Adele Rosenzweig—Adele will attend New York University. She was Girl Leader of Arista, Chairman of three Sings and is Editor-in-Chief of Comet.

Janice Schwartz—Janice will study at Brooklyn College. She is a member of Arista, Senior Leaders, the Modern Dance Club and Amicus.

Roberta Weiss—Roberta will attend Brooklyn College. She was a member of Sing and a Math Tutor and is a member of Arista.

Logosso Awarded CooperationMedal

Richard Logosso has been named winner of this term's Cooperation in Government Medal. The award is presented each term to the student who has the most outstanding record of school service and citizenship. In addition to the medal, seventeen students have been named winners of Cooperation in Government Certificates. The presentations will be made at graduation.

Richard, who is currently serving his second term as President of the G.O., is now a member of the N.C.C.J. Board, the Newman Club, and Band.

The certificate winners, in alphabetical order, are: Martin Black, Geraldine DeLuca, Terri DiRosa, Michael Eilenberg, Barbara Feldman, Dorene Goldberg, April Kiernan, Evelyn Logosso, Jay Milstein, Connie O'Lenick, Kathleen Ravi, Sheila Ratzan, Paulayne Sklarsky, Dorothy Sollazzo, Seymour Sundell, Rose Wallfield, and Rochelle Weiner.

Special Assembly Honors 175 For Scholarship and Service

One hundred seventy-five New Utrecht students were honored for their outstanding achievements in scholarship and service at the Annual Awards Assembly, held on May 28.

Eli Brettler was awarded a Certificate of Honor for the Westinghouse Science Talent Search, and also received a plaque from the Ford Foundation Future Scientists of America Achievement Program. The same organization also presented a Certificate of Merit to Harvey Siegal.

Anthony Doddiego and Timothy Holiner were awarded Honorable Mention in the 25th Annual Science Fair.

Philip Menna and Arthur Valli were awarded athletic scholarships to Temple University. Awards were also presented by the Boys Health Education Department to those students who were outstanding on school athletic teams.

Scholastic awards were presented by the Foreign Language, Math, Music, Secretarial Studies, and Shop Departments.

Service awards were given to the Math Help Squad; 2 and 3 year members of band, orchestra and madrigal; the Stage Crew; and Speakers Workshop. One and two year certificates were also presented to those who have rendered exceptional service to Agathon, Audio Visual Aids, Traffic Squad, Boosters and the G.O.

Recipients of Community Service Awards were those students active in the field of Human Relations, and the Junior Red Cross Volunteers.

Parent's Assoc. Installs Officers

The newly elected officers of the Parents Association, for next year, were installed at the final Parents Association Meeting of this year, on June 19. The new officers, who were installed by the Principal, Mr. Isaac Hersh, are: Mrs. Louise Leone, President; Mrs. Helen Silvers, Vice-President; Mrs. Florence Bruder, Treasurer; Mrs. Mary Green, Recording Secretary; and Mrs. Florence Cooper, Corresponding Secretary.

Arista Given New Foster Child

Do you know what poverty really means? To Hilario Castell, Arista's new foster child, poverty means going to school without eating, and living in a shack made of old wood on a lot rented for $2.00 a month in a wretched suburb of Manila. Being poor means Hilario's widowed mother earns between 38¢ and 50¢ a day as a dressmaker, and works only two or three days a week for people who are not much better off than she.

Hilario, almost ten years old, is a Philippine boy, small for his age, struggling to exist along with his mother and two brothers, Manuel, 15, who has epilepsy, and Felipe, 13. A heart attack killed his hardworking father two years ago, and since then his mother has diligently tried to save her family. His father had been a truck mechanic, plagued by high blood pressure and heart trouble.

Hilario Castell

There was little hope for the Castells after he died. The relatives they have are no better off than they. Rejected by a lack of education and skill, Hilario, his brothers and mother, lived from hungry day to hungry day, until our money helped relieve their sufferings. They are given clothing and food, and $8.00 a month, and also the realization that some people, somewhere, care about them.

Prizes, Refreshments, Music Highlight 4th County Fair

Everyone waited with fingers crossed, hoping that it would not rain. May 27 came and the weather was great. So was County Fair.

Some wood, nails, crepe paper, balloons, and a lot of spirit created the County Fair, as the New Utrecht students finally saw it. They also saw legs dangling, whip cream flying, water splashing, marriage ceremonies, modern art, and plenty to eat.

Whose legs were we throwing the garters on in the "Garter The Girl" booth? Were they the legs of the Boosters or the football team?

If you wanted to get even with one of the Cheerleaders, you threw a ball in a basket and then had the opportunity of squirting a can of whip cream in the girls' faces.

Art lovers were able to purchase paintings—not by Picasso, but almost as good—painted by our major art students.

For the not so ideal marriages, there was a divorce booth right next door to the marriage booth. (Too bad there was no marriage counselor.)

The Arista booth was an outlet for the creative. With the use of paint-filled water guns, you designed your own paintings, or redesigned the Arista officers.

Speaking of water guns, the Twirlers look good with wet faces. They sure were good sports.

If you were in the mood for a salami sandwich, you went to the "Salami Tree Booth," run by the Boosters. Four darts in a hanging salami meant a free sandwich.

Even if you could not throw darts very well, there was still plenty to eat. Pizza, knishes, water melon, drinks, pop corn and other foods were sold at various places on the field.

With stomachs filled, talents used up, heads spinning, and money spent, students departed, looking forward to next year's fair.

S. Sundell Wins H. S. Press Award

Seymour Sundell, editor-in-chief of the NUHS, has been named a winner of the High School Press Council Contest for Crusading Journalism.

Awards were presented, by the Press Council, in six categories including the one for a "Crusading Editorial" won by Sundell. The winning editorial appeared in the October issue of the NUHS and was entitled "On Amity."

The awards were presented at a Press Council meeting held at George Westinghouse Vocational High School, on June 5. Two Collegiate Dictionaries were awarded, one for the winning student, and one for his school.

On NUHS — Our Last

Our sole purpose in the past year has been to print and circulate a newspaper which, in our opinion, would represent the ideas, thoughts and activities of the New Utrecht student.

"The man that makes a character, makes foes."
Edward Young

As is the pre-destined fate of any newspaper, or organization which must state its opinions, we have made our share of enemies. This however, can also be viewed with pride, as a newspaper which does not allow for controversy, cannot be doing its job.

We have tried to cover the news with insight, and to serve the student as a source of information. Having made errors, we were justly criticized for them, but we trust that we have been of service to the student body as a whole.

A position on the staff of a school paper avails the student of many opportunities which are not usually available to the average member of the student body, and for this we are very thankful.

Mrs. Beatrice Rosenbaum and Mr. Jerome Flescher, our faculty advisors, deserve a great deal of credit for the long hours which they have put into the NUHS. They have worked with us, helped us, and have each earned the respect of the entire staff.

We have done our best at a job which we thoroughly enjoyed! So it is with pencil-in-hand that we regretfully write our last NUHS stories, and say our last "goodby" to our home away from home, the NUHS-Comet office.

S.S.

Introspect

842 students will end their high school careers this month. For each pupil, graduation has a different significance; but for all of us, it marks the culmination of three years' growth—physical, mental, spiritual, and emotional. It means the achievement of having added new depth to our person—the broadening of the mind, the molding of the personality, the development of the character. It represents the end of our many wonderful experiences here at school—the enlightenment that comes with learning, understanding, and gaining insight.

For most of us, commencement means taking one step closer to maturity; for, contrary to what some think, maturity is not acquired merely by the passing of adolescence, but rather is a continuous process which consists of learning from what we hear, see, read, and experience. Without this ability to learn or this desire to mature, the human race would stagnate. Thus, it is the individual's responsibility to himself to live his life to its greatest extent; to find in every moment a significant experience from which we first drain every bit of life, and later release with a reluctance that comes from leaving the familiar; and with the faith, courage, and aspiration face the unknown.

A.B.K.

In Preparation

A great deal of timidity, nervousness, and anxiety was mixed with the work that went into producing this issue of the NUHS. We, the new inexperienced staff of writers and editors, made our first attempt at the duties that will be ours in the coming year. We view the retiring staff with a respect that only one who has undergone this experience can feel. After attaining information, writing and rewriting it, and making up the paper, one is filled with disbelief and relief at the sight of the finished product coming out on time. We, the future staff, hope we can fulfill the responsibilities of our positions with the same high standards as were followed by this year's staff.

E.R.R.

Varied Summer Activities Available To HS Students

Many students can be heard wailing through the halls, "I can't find a job!" Don't become too distressed if you find yourself part of this group. Economists tell us there is a surplus on the labor market.

The large manufacturing firms have given preference to our outgoing Senior class. Most of the general and commercial students will be typing and taking dictation. Other seniors who sought city jobs ended up in offices doing clerical work or as counselors in day camps. Some of the boys will become men-in-white—ice cream salesmen and beach boys.

Hotel resorts and sleep-away camps will be invaded by a few lucky high school students. They will combine a good time with the work of waiters, waitresses, busboys, and counselors. College students, however, have presented competition since they may start work in the beginning of June.

The outlook is very pessimistic if you haven't landed a job yet. Most of the students have secured their positions through relatives and friends. There are, however, still many useful ways to spend this vacation.

Future doctors, nurses, and hospital aides can gain valuable experience as Junior Red Cross Volunteers. Positions are available in vacation playgrounds, recreation centers, hospitals, and Red Cross chapters. The benefits include a good character reference on your Permanent Record Card, a recognition pin, and a Certificate of Merit awarded for good performance. If you want to become a responsible citizen of your community, call SU 7-1000 for an interview.

Farm cadet programs are open to any boy interested in agriculture. Upstate New York offers fertile land and prosperous farms to work on. Mrs. Inman will give any information about this program.

Travel is another favorite summer pastime. Miriam Abramowicz will be in Europe putting her French to good use. Carolyn Block will fly to Israel to work on a kibbutz to see how the other side lives. Well, Bon Voyage!

The intelligentsia will remain in their own domain. Summer courses given by colleges in the United States were offered to outstanding math and science students. Tim Bruce Holiner, Aisik Newman, Paul Rothstein, Sandra Sherman and Judybonnie Steinberg have been accepted by various colleges.

The Other Side

By SUSAN GOLDSTEIN

The door opened, a tired looking figure appeared, looked around the room and then closed the door behind him. He strode across the front of the room and then slumped down wearily into an uncomfortable wooden seat behind the desk. He seemed nervous. He played with his hands and changed positions constantly. As soon as we began talking, however, he seemed much more at ease. The atmosphere took on an informal nature and things proceeded smoothly.

As I sat there I recalled the old proverb, "You can't judge a book by its cover." What appeared to be a tired, downcast, individual turned out to be one of the most lively and controversially opinionated persons in our school. So began my interview with Mr. P. L. Cohen, a member of the English department.

Paul Lewis Cohen was born on March 9, 1937. He has lived in Brooklyn. He has attended schools including P.S. 19, P.S. 241, John Marshall J.H.S., Erasmus High School, Pratt, City College, N.Y.U., L.I.U., and Brooklyn College.

As a boy, the book which made the deepest impression on him was a "Tale of Two Cities" by Charles Dickens. He also enjoys the work of Arthur Miller and F. Scott Fitzgerald.

Mr. Cohen has always had varied interests, including writing, government, politics, music, theater, and, of course, English. Today, he considers his most important interest to be life.

As a youngster, Mr. Cohen worshipped Lou Gehrig. Today his views are changed, and so have his "heroes." Adlai Stevenson ("a man of ideas"), Fiorello LaGuardia ("had guts"), Franklin D. Roosevelt and Eleanor Roosevelt are among those of whom he thinks highly. Mr. Cohen admires the man who thinks for himself and sticks up for his ideas.

"The only thing I like about teaching is the fact that I am teaching kids." With this attitude, P. L. Cohen has formed some interesting opinions pertaining to his profession.

He feels that the first responsibility of the teacher is to make the student aware of life. A good student-teacher relationship is essential. A teacher must realize that he must go down to the student's level in order to bring them up to his. A child should not be badgered.

High school teachers should not be conservative, and should give the students as broad a view of their subject as possible.

Graduating Seniors

1. Scholar Incentive Awards.

A. Students who failed to take the Regents Scholarship Exam last October may also qualify for a Scholar Incentive Award by:

1. Earning a score of 800 or more on the combined verbal and math portions of the SAT of the College Boards OR

2. Completing the requirements for (but not necessarily be awarded) a Regents high school diploma AND

3. Applying for and planning to attend a college in New York State at which tuition fees are $200 or more a year.

Seniors who meet the above requirements and who wish to apply for Scholar Incentive Awards should see Miss Goldberg in Room 156 for necessary application forms.

B. NOTE: To be eligible for the Scholar Incentive Award, you must be planning to attend a tuition-charging college and must carry 12 credits of work.

2. Seniors who have not yet taken their College Boards Exam have a final opportunity to register for the August 14 examination. The deadline for filing is July 17. This examination will be acceptable for February admission to college. Applications are available in College Office.

Juniors

1. Preliminary registration for the New York State Regents Exam will definitely close on June 14. All January 1964 graduates are eligible regardless of type of diploma. This both a scholarship and an admissions test. It is also required for admission to NEW YORK CITY COMMUNITY COLLEGE, FASHION INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, and all branches of the STATE UNIVERSITY. Any student who has not yet registered should see Miss Goldberg in Room 156 at once.

2. All January 1964 college-bound graduates, who have not yet taken the College Boards, MUST TAKE THEM BY AUGUST 1963. The deadline for filing for the August 14 examination is July 17. Application booklets are available in the College Office.

The Green and White

By ROBERT SCHWARTZ and ALICE ZARRILLO

Never in the long history of New Utrecht has our school had so many successful teams as this year. The football, soccer, baseball, basketball, bowling, and tennis teams came in near the top of their divisions. The golf team was division champs and the track team acquired more trophies for the first floor showcases. But graduation, that inevitable June demon, will take nine out of eleven of Mr. Rapp's varsity and four out of five of Mr. Gordon's starters. What can we expect from our big teams next semester?

A cold winter was predicted by Mr. Rapp who has only four varsity players, Bill Wade, Nick Capucci, Jerry Tripoli and Lenny Hirskowitz remaining. "An inexperienced Junior Varsity needs a strong overall spirit to improve the Utes' 14-2 record of the last two seasons," Mr. Rapp said.

A flexible basketball team with little height was described by Mr. Gordon as the rebuilding season begins. The tallest man on the squad is 6 feet 3 inch Mike Lomazow and the only starting player returning is Captain Robert Beller. Mr. Gordon is hopeful that Bob, a good team man, and an outstanding student, will follow in the footsteps of Howie Furman.

Mr. Gordon is optimistic about a winning season, although he believes that his team does not have an outstanding chance of winning the Division Championship. By beating the more powerful teams in the division Mr. Gordon feels that his team can very well be the "spoiler."

In the spring, the sports' scene should brighten with Mr. Felcher's baseball team. Inexperience was the only factor that prevented the winning of the title this year and next year they hope to go all the way.

* * *

Being a sports editor is not an easy job. Many responsibilities go along with it. Becoming the first female sports editor in the history of this school brings forth additional problems. Judging from the manner in which Alice handled the baseball stories, I can safely say that next year's sports editor will be an excellent one.

I would also like to say farewell to all the students of the New Utrecht High School. To those who are graduating with me, I wish the best of luck in the future. To those who are remaining for another year or two, keep up the good grades, have fun, and enjoy your sports.

Sideline Slants

By PHIL ROTHFELD

One of the mainstays of Mr. Abe [illegible]dstaff the past two years has been curve-ball pitcher Al Barrasso.

Last year as a junior, Al posted a 2-2 record. This year he pitched his finest game against Lincoln, hurling the entire game and giving up only three hits on the way to a 2-1 victory. It was Al's second fine game against the Lincoln nine, the first being a relief stint.

Al feels that this year's second-place team put up a good fight, and with a few breaks could have beaten Lafayette and gained the division championship.

Barrasso, a six-foot 200 pounder, finds Italian food much to his liking. He is interested in and enjoys most sports, especially bowling and basketball.

Al's plans for the future are indefinite, but right now he is very busy with baseball, pitching in the Shore Parkway League.

Allan Van Praag

A hard, unreturnable serve is smashed and Allan Van Praag has won another match for the Utes. This took place many times this spring as the Green and White tennis captain compiled an outstanding 7-1 record.

Van Praag is 5'11" and 160 pounds. His interests off the courts are headed by sports, girls and food.

Mr. Marinello, Ute tennis coach, feels that Allan improved steadily during his two years on the team and reached his peak towards the end of this season.

It was a superb season for Van Praag. He was beaten by Madison in the season opener but then won seven consecutive matches without losing a set. His list of victims included Sheepshead, Fort Hamilton, Lafayette, Westinghouse, Grady, Alexander Hamilton and division champ Erasmus.

Van Praag is headed for Hunter College where he will be a pre-medical student. His loss will be sorely felt by the Ute tennis team.

Track Team Wins 2 City Medals

New Utrecht's track team completed one of their finest seasons in recent years by winning two medals at the City Championships, held May 25, at Randall's Island. Previously, New Utrecht had placed fourth out of the twenty-two teams who competed for the Brooklyn title, taking three medals.

Highlighting this year's team was shotputter Kenneth Moss. Kenny, in his first year of competition, lost the City Championship by a heartbreaking two inches after winning the borough title. Nick Bruno, also a shotputter, finished right behind Kenny in both meets, adding two more medals to the Green and White collection. Austin Johnson, one of the city's best hurdlers, was disqualified in the city meet, but did win a medal in the Brooklyn meet.

This season was significant in that it marked the return of New Utrecht to prominence in track and field after having recently experienced a few years of frustration. Next year's team seems to be shaping up as even better than this years. With Moss returning along with a large number of promising young runners, it seems as if Mr. Browne's team will carry the banner of the Green and White in pride.

Ute 9 Ends Second Place Season; Mound Staff Strikes Out Fifty

By ALICE ZARRILLO

New Utrecht's baseball team, ending the 1963 season with a second place 5-3 record, came within percentage points of the division championship. With a seven man Lafayette infield attempting to prevent the tieing Ute run from crossing the plate, Coach Abe Felcher's team scored one run, but was unable to defeat division-leading Lafayette in an extra inning game that ended in a 4-4 tie.

An excellent pitching staff constituted the backbone of the team, chalking up over 50 strikeouts in the last 5 games. Al Barrasso led the squad in complete games including a heartbreaking 1-0 loss to Grady in which he gave up only 3 hits and struck out 10. In addition to turning in fine performances on the mound against Grady, John Jay and Lafayette, Rich Telesco saved several games with his late inning base hits. In his best performance of the season, Steve Wiesbrod struck out 15 Fort Hamilton batters, allowed only 3 hits and one unearned run as the Utes trounced Hamilton 12-1.

The team's big improvement over last year came in defensive play. An improved infield, consisting of Ronnie Frers at first, David Lenes at second and Phil Menna at third, greatly reduced the amount of errors that plagued the team a year ago. Completing the infield at shortstop was Senior Gilmore Miese, who made several outstanding plays and turned in many fine performances at the plate. Pete Licato, Ralph "Adonis" Mustillo, Rich Cardone, and Nolan Russo played the outfield.

The weakest spot of the team was in hitting and the inability to get key hits with men on base. Soph catcher Joe Peluso often contributed to the Ute cause, including a two run homer in the Jay game which Utrecht won 3-2. The most powerful Ute attack came against Fort Hamilton when they got ten hits, many of them going for extra bases, and scored a total of 12 runs.

At the season's end, Coach Felcher optimistically remarked, "With most of our players returning next year, and the experience gained this season, the team should go all the way next year."

Golfers Division Champs; Lose City Title By Putt

Three years ago Mr. Hess took over the New Utrecht Golf Team and this spring for the first time in almost thirty years the golf team won the division championship. In beating Sheepshead Bay, the New Utrecht golfers clinched the division as they took five in a row for a perfect record.

The season started a month ago when the golfers took on Lafayette and defeated them 3-2. Later on this proved to be their toughest match of the year.

After that they defeated Lincoln 4-1 and Grady 5-0. Then the Utes went on to meet Fort Hamilton, last year's champs and this years competition. The Utes won out handily for their fourth in a row. The Utes finished in a burst of glory defeating Sheepshead Bay 4½-½ for a perfect season and the division title.

In the Brooklyn championship against Erasmus the golfers lost 3-2, but not without a great effort as they lost by one stroke. The Utes beat this same Erasmus team 4-1 in an exhibition match earlier.

The team was composed of Captain Richard Zinno who was 4-2 on the year, Terry Carnes undefeated, Mike Lozupone 5-1, Ronnie Restaino 3-2-1, and Greg Gagliardi who was 4-2 in his first year. All of these golfers shoot in the 80's.

Next year the team will be made up of Lozupone, Captain, Gagliardi, Co-Captain, Ed Mehlman, and Robert Raffaniello, but Coach Hess says it is a rebuilding year and he needs a few more golfers. The Utes are still expected to have a fine year.

On Saturday, June 1 the Utes went to the Brooklyn Team Championship at Dyker Beach. This is an 18 hole match putting four man teams against each other. As expected the Utes did just as well at this as they did all year long during their championship season.

Tennis Team Ends '63 Season At 4-4

The Ute tennis team failed in its attempt to break the .500 mark and for the third consecutive year posted a 4-4 record.

Going into the final match against Sheepshead, Coach Domenic Marinello's netmen were 4-3. Butch Van Praag trounced his opponent while Bruce Ullman and the two doubles teams each took a one set lead. But, Sheepshead made a fine comeback in all three matches to gain a 4-1 victory.

A key victory for the Utes was in the Fort Hamilton match. Van Praag won easily and Bruce Ullman won a grueling match 7-5, 6-8, 6-3. Phil Rothfeld and Neil Hoffman clinched the victory with a strong 7-5, 6-4 win. Lew Alster and the doubles team of Russ Sherman and Stu Singer were defeated.

The other victories came against Grady, Westinghouse and Alexander Hamilton. The netmen blanked Hamilton 5-0 as Stu Bernstein was the surprise of the match with a 6-0, 6-1 singles win.

French Essay Awards Won By 4 New Utrecht Seniors

New Utrecht French students have once again brought honor to our school. Charles Flaster won first prize and Robert Harwood won fourth prize in the Inter-High School French Essay Contest, entitled "My Favorite Author of the Nineteenth Century." Charles discussed Emile Zola, while Robert's essay was on Victor Hugo.

Eugene Diamond and Josephine Mongiardo were each awarded a medal and a book as a result of a contest sponsored by "La Societe des Professeurs francais en Amerique." The exam consisted of a written and an oral part. The written part included a 200 word essay and a long translation from English to French.

Eugene has been news editor of the French American Student, a city-wide French student publication, for the past two terms. Last term, his article on the Common Market was featured on page one; in this term's issue, two of his stories are on page one.

All of the above students are now in Miss Mary Gesualdi's fourth year French class.

3 Years Recapped At Senior Show

This term's Senior Show was presented to an enthusiastic audience at the Senior Assembly on May 22. The production was under the direction of Michael Amodeo and Adele Rosenzweig.

The gala show was a recap of the seniors' three years at New Utrecht. This included skits about Hurricane Donna, sororities, and the launching of the first New Utrecht astronaut. There was also a dance done in an array of costumes symbolizing County Fair, and one showing Boosters, Cheerleaders, and Twirlers clashing on the court during the Powder Bowl. One of the highlights of the show was a small but perfected chorus, led by Michael Amodeo, which sang Soph, Junior, and Senior Sing Victory Songs and the Senior Alma Mater. There were also small parts from the two successful Varsity Shows, "The Boyfriend" and "Oklahoma!" The scene from "The Boyfriend", "Never Too Late" was done by Carol Kramer and Howard Weinstein. The scene from "Oklahoma!", "Many A New Day", was performed by Patricia Iacobazzo and a few members of the chorus.

Teacher To Take Summer Courses

Mrs. Ann Bein, a member of the math department, has been chosen to participate in the Summer Institute for High School Teachers of Mathematics, to be held at Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., this summer.

She will be expected to take courses in higher mathematics, and to attend five days a week. In addition, the staff will schedule discussion sessions, problem sessions, and informal conferences.

One of the country's oldest liberal arts colleges, Hamilton, on its 160 acre campus, 9 miles from Utica, has been giving continuous instruction since 1793.

Mrs. Bein disclosed that she is very excited by this honor, particularly since her husband and two sons will be living with her on campus.

Key Clubs Hold 'Hep' Hope Hop

On Friday, May 31, the Key Clubs of New Utrecht and Lafayette High Schools sponsored a "Hope Hop" at the Cotillion Terrace. A total of 250 dollars was raised for the Good Ship Hope.

Students from both schools took equal interest in the dance. Door prizes, including a camera, a wallet and perfume, were donated by local merchants. Entertainment was provided by Mike Vee and the Imperials and Lou Jordan.

Project Hope is a non-profit organization. Its main objective is the training of medical and dental personnel in those countries where medical aid is desperately needed.

New Techniques In Chem Classes

A new semi-micro technique was instituted recently by the Chemistry department. The new equipment requires smaller amounts of chemicals, takes up less space, and is cheaper than the old standard size equipment.

The chief advantage of the new equipment is that it makes accuracy and care a necessity, thus, preparing the students for the more exacting laboratory applications necessary in college chemistry courses. Also, because of the safety inherent in using small quantities, experiments which were previously considered too dangerous for student performance are now being done.

Other Side . . . . .

He believes in good taste in the classroom, but not censorship. The students are entitled to disagree with him, but "he rips them to pieces" if they do not have the evidence to back up their opinions.

"The most important problem in life is to be human. People don't appreciate other people any more. Man is too self-centered. You have to do something for and with other people. You can't just live and do things for yourself."

"In life you must take chances. You may get hit, but you'll have fun doing it." Thus sums up the philosophy, and interview of P. L. Cohen.

O'Lenick Awarded Youth Scholarship

Connie O'Lenick, President of Amicus, has been awarded one of the New York Journal-American Youth Honor Scholarships, for her work in the field of human relations and brotherhood. The award is valued at $500.

Connie, who is also president of the Brooklyn chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews Youth Group, was one of only eight recipients of this award in the entire New York area.

Nominated for this high honor by Mr. Abraham Goodman, Administrative Assistant, and Miss June Goldberg, College Advisor, Connie was subsequently screen by the Journal-American Scholarship Screening Committee and chosen by the Scholarship Board.

Suggestions For Summer Reading

In case you're wondering why there's a second masthead (list of the staff), here, on Page 4 (in addition to the regular one on Page 2), there is really a very good reason. As this is the last issue of the NUHS for the current term, Editors-in-Chief April Kierman and Seymour Sundell, and their staff, are getting set to turn the reins over to next term's Editor-in-Chief, Ellen Rozman, and her staff. Therefore, so as to become familiar with the behind-the-scenes work of putting out a newspaper, the new staff has been working on this issue, in the positions they will most likely hold next term. So, to give them due credit for their work, their names have been put in this special mas[t]head.

5 Utes Honored By Lincoln Center

Five New Utrecht students will be guests of Lincoln Center for six New York Philharmonic concerts next year.

Carolyn Block, Sheldon Hersh, Harvey Nisselson, Zev Rozenwats and Ellen Rozman were chosen by the Philharmonic-Symphony as winners of the Lincoln Center Student Awards. The award entitles the student to six free concerts of the Philharmonic, in addition to several lectures.

The awards were made on the basis of scholarship and interest in music.
